Abijah Hutchinson was born in Lebanon, Conn., in 1756, he was a Connecticut privateer, lived half a century in Vermont, and settled in 1835 in Genesee, N. Y., where he died in 1843. His captivity among the Indians of Canada is detailed at length.

H[HUTCHINSON] (S[amuel].) A Declaration of a Future Glorious Estate of a Church to be here upon Earth, at Christs Personal Appearance for the Restitution of all things, a Thousand Year before the Ultimate Day of the General Judgement. Set forth by a Letter to a Friend. As also further proved by divers Scriptures, together with the Testimony of many Godly Divines, both Ancient and Modern. By S. H. of Boston in New-England. London: Printed in the year 1667. 4to, pp. 36. 34067

“Samuel Hutchinson, the author of this extraordinary and rare compilation, was a brother of William, the father of Anne Hutchinson, the strong-minded of New England 200 years ago. He was a Fifth-monarchy man, and has here not only set forth his own views both in prose and verse, but has collected the opinions of competent writers of the old world and the new upon the establishment of the Fifth Kingdom, that of Christ, the new Heaven and the new Earth. His principal paper is ‘A Letter sent to a Friend in Old England concerning the Personal Monarchical Reign of Christ with the Saints here upon Earth, being an Answer to a Letter sent from Old England to New in 1659.’—STEVENS.

[HUTCHINSON (Thomas).] The Case of the Provinces of Massachusetts-Bay and New-York, respecting the Boundary Line between the two Provinces. Boston ... Printed by Green and Russell ... 1764. Folio, pp. xxx. Table. 34068

An extremely rare pamphlet.

[HUTCHINSON.] A Collection of Original Papers Relative to the History of the Colony of Massachusetts-Bay. Boston: New-England: Printed by Thomas and John Fleet. 1769. 8vo, pp. (2), ii, 576. B., BA., H. 34069

“This collection of papers was published by Lieut.-Gov. Hutchinson, ‘to support and elucidate the principal facts related in the first part of the History of Massachusetts Bay, and may serve as an appendix to it.’ ‘The author of that History was possessed of many other ancient and very curious original papers, which are irrecoverably lost by an unfortunate event sufficiently known.’ (This alludes to the destruction of his papers by a mob, at the time of the Riots in Boston on account of the Stamp Act, in 1765.)” —RICH. It is sometimes erroneously bound up and lettered as Vol. III. of the “History.” It is a necessary adjunct to Hutchinson’s “History of Massachusetts Bay.” It was reprinted by the Prince Society as:

HUTCHINSON. The Hutchinson Papers. A New Edition. Collated with and Corrected from the Original Manuscript, and Edited, with Illustrative Notes. Albany, N. Y.: Printed by Joel Munsell. 1865. 2 vols., 4to, pp. xv, (I), ii, 324; vii, 354. B.

Edition, one hundred and sixty copies, of which ten copies are on large paper.

HUTCHINSON. Copy of Letters Sent to Great Britain, by His Excellency Thomas Hutchinson, the Hon. Andrew Oliver, and several other Persons, born and educated among us. Which original Letters have been returned to America, and laid before the honor-|able House of Representatives of this |Province. | In which (notwithstanding his Excellency's | Declaration to the House, that the Ten-|dency and Design of them was not to | subvert the Constitution, but rather to | preserve it entire) the judicious Reader | will discover the fatal Source of the | Confusion and Bloodshed in which this | Province especially has been involved, and which threatened total Destruction to the Liberties of all America. | Boston: Printed by Edes and Gill, ... 1773. 8vo, pp. 40. B., BA., H. + Salem: Reprinted and sold by S. & E. Hall. 1773. 8vo, pp. 30. 34071

These are the famous letters which found their way back to Boston, it is said, through Dr. Franklin, the publication of which, by order of the General Court, did more, perhaps, to bring revolutionary matters to a crisis than any previous publication; indeed, "nothing except the 'Tea Party' ever created a greater political sensation in Boston, or more speedy results than the publication, by authority of the General Court, of these letters." They were reprinted in England as:

HUTCHINSON. The Letters of Governor Hutchinson, and Lieut. Governor Oliver, &c. Printed at Boston. And Remarks thereon. HUTCHINSON. The | History | of the | Colony | of | Massachusets-Bay, | from the | first Settlement thereof | in 1628. | Until its
Incorporation | with the Colony of Plimouth, Province of Main,
&c. | by the | Charter of King William and Queen Mary, | in

1691. | ... | By Mr. Hutchinson, | Lieutenant-Governor of the
Massachusetts Province. | Boston, New-England: Printed by Thomas and John Fleet, ... MDCCLXIV. 8vo, pp. vi, 566. BA. 34075

This is the first edition of what, in fact, forms Vol. 1. of the work. It was reprinted in London as :

HUTCHINSON. The | History | of the | Colony | of | Massachusetts-Bay, | from the | First Settlement thereof | in 1628, | until its
Incorporation | with the | Colony of Plimouth, Province of Main,
&c. | By the | Charter of King William and Queen Mary, | in
1691. | ... | By Mr. Hutchinson, | Lieutenant-Governor of the
Massachusetts Province. | The Second Edition. | *London: Printed
for M. Richardson ...* | M DCC LX [i.e. M DCC LXV]. 8vo, pp. (6), iv, 566. 34076

The error in the date was not discovered until many copies had been sold, and the work is sometimes found with the original title and with the reprinted title, in which the date is corrected to read M DCC LXV. It is very probable that the v fell out of the printer's form in the first instance.

HUTCHINSON. The History of the Colony of Massachusetts Bay [as above]. By Mr. Hutchinson, Late Lieutenant Governor, and now Commander-in-Chief of the Massachusetts Province. The Third Edition. Boston: Printed and sold by I. Thomas.
[1774.] 8vo, pp. 152. 34077

This edition appeared in the "Royal American Magazine," which is supposed to have terminated with the fifteenth number. It is an unfinished work, and is the rarest of the editions of this history.

HUTCHINSON. The | History | of the | Province | of | Massachusetts-Bay, | from the | Charter of King William and Queen Mary, | in
1691, | Until the Year 1750. | By Mr. Hutchinson, | Lieutenant-
Governor of the Province. | Boston, New-England: Printed by Thomas & John Fleet, ... MDCCLXVII. 8vo, pp. (4), iv, 539.

First edition of the second volume with an index to both volumes. It was reprinted the following year in England as :

HUTCHINSON. The | History | of the | Province | of | Massachusetts-Bay, | from the | Charter of King William and Queen Mary, | in
1691, | Until the Year 1750. | By Mr. Hutchinson, | Lieutenant
Governor of the Province. | Vol. II. | The Second Edition. |
London: Printed by J. Smith ... for G. Kearsley ... M DCC LXVIII.
8vo, pp. (4), iv, 539. H. 34079

Printed nearly page for page throughout from the Boston edition.

HUTCHINSON. The History of Massachusetts, from the First Settlement Thereof in 1628, until the Year 1750. By Thomas Hutchinson, Esq. Late Governor of Massachusetts. ... The

Third Edition, with additional Notes and Corrections. Vol. I. Printed at Salem: by Thomas C. Cushing, for Thomas and Andrews. 1795. 8vo, pp. 478, (10). Vol. II. Printed at Boston: by Manning and Loring, for Thomas and Andrews. 1795. 8vo, pp. 452.

This edition has a few additional notes by the anonymous editor; in the matter of paper and type "it is the poorest of all."—CHARLES DEANE in the Historical Magazine. The following was a posthumous publication:

HUTCHINSON. The History of the Province of Massachusetts Bay, from the Year 1750 until June 1774. By Mr. Hutchinson, Late Governor of the Province. Vol. III. London: John Murray. MDCCCXXVIII. 8vo, pp. iv, 551. 34081

Five hundred copies were struck off with this title for the American market; but the exigencies of trade have induced some Boston bookseller, who bought up a number of copies, to reprint the title, omitting "Vol. III.," thus making it appear an entire work. Five hundred copies were also printed for sale in England with the following title:

HUTCHINSON. The | History of the Province | of | Massachusetts Bay | from 1749 to 1774, | comprising a Detailed Narrative of the | Origin and Early Stages | of the American Revolution. | By Thomas Hutchinson, Esq. LL.D., | formerly Governor of the Province. | Edited from the Author's MS., by his Grandson, | the Rev. John Hutchinson, M.A. | London: John Murray ... MDCCCXXVIII. 8vo, pp. xx, 551. 34082

Contains a Dedication and Preface, 16 pages, which were omitted in the edition described supra. This volume concludes the "History;" the "Collection of Papers" should be added. It is a work of permanent value and is indispensable in any American Collection. Judge Davis remarks "The reputation of Governor Hutchinson's 'History' rests on the solid basis of utility and truth." Tudor observes "that he is more valuable for his facts than his style."—Life of Otis, Chap. xxvi.

[HUTCHINSON.] A Journal of the Proceedings of the Commissioners appointed for Managing a Treaty of Peace: To be begun and held at Falmouth in the County of York, the Twenty-seventh of September, Anno Domini One thousand seven hundred and forty-nine; Between Thomas Hutchinson, John Choate, Israel Williams and James Otis, Esqrs; Commissioned by the Honourable Spencer Phips, Esq; Lieutenant-Governour and Commander in Chief, in and over His Majesty's Province of the Massachusetts-Bay in New-England, on the one Part; and the Eastern Indians on the other Part. Boston; New-England: Printed by John Draper, Printer to His Honour the Lieutenant-Governour and Council. [n. d.] 4to, pp. 18. [HUTCHINSON.] Strictures upon the Declaration of the Congress at Philadelphia. In a Letter to a Noble Lord, &c. London: Printed in the Year 1776. 8vo, pp. 32. C., S. 34087

"The author of these 'Strictures' gives, as his reason for writing them, that the noble Lord to whom they are written had observed that he was utterly at a loss to what facts many parts of the Declaration of Independence referred, that he might judge of the grievances of the colonies." In a volume of tracts which belonged to Sir James Wright, this piece is stated to have been written by Gov. Hutchinson.

For a note, concerning the authorship of this collection, see HARRISSE's "Bib. Am. Vet.," p. 292. It contains the voyages of Cadamosto, the three voyages of Columbus, Nino, Pinzon, Vesputius, Cabral, and part of the Fourth Decade of Peter Martyr, also many other pieces which do not relate to America. Notwithstanding the statement in Mr. Grenville's Catalogue respecting the frequent absence of the map, there is no doubt but that a map does belong to the work, and Mr. F. Muller has reproduced ten copies in exact facsimile. HARRISSE remarks "Whether they were the maps really belonging to the work, and described by Munster, we are unable to say, as no two copies of this edition had the same. We have before us one, which is as follows: On one line: TYVVS COSMOGRAPHICVS VNIVERSALIS. Then a border, and two inscriptions, one beginning with the word INDIA, the other SCYTHARVM. The newly rediscovered world is represented on the north of a long strip of land, bearing the inscription Terra de Cuba. The southern part contains these words only: Parias Canibali AMERICA | TERRA NOVA | Prisilia. Then, in type, the word: ASIA. This we are inclined to consider as the genuine map. We have seen four or five copies of the 'Novus Orbis' of Basle, 1537, infra, each containing a map which is literally copied from the present, but with this only difference: the word Asia is printed in a kind of type somewhat different and smaller. The latter is also frequently seen in the 'Novus Orbis' of Basle, 1555. Another 'Novus Orbis' of Basle, 1532, contains a map bearing the following inscription: 'Tabula nouarum Insularum, quas diuersis respectibus Occidentales & Indianas uocant.' In this the word America is not to be found; we only read on the southern part of this continent: 'Nou orbis, Insula Atlantica quam uocant Brasil & Americam,' and 'Die Nüw | Welt.' We think it belongs to some of the small folio Ptolemies."—Abridged and corrected from HARRISSE. For a list of the contents see Trömel's "Bibliothèque Americaine," No. 4; consult also Ternaux, No. 38, and Rich, No. 7.

The map, for a description of which see HARRISSE's "Bib. Am. Vet.," p. 298, is by Orontius Fine, and has been reproduced in facsimile by Frederick Muller. Cancellieri says of this edition "più rara di tutte." So far as contents are concerned it is merely a reprint of our No. 34100. The preface is sometimes wanting, as it contains a passage offensive to the Inquisition, and some copies contain these passages struck out with a pen. The following is the same edition as this with another title-page, in which the only change is in the name of the publisher.

In addition to the contents of the earlier editions, this contains on pp. 585-600 the letter of Maximilian of Transylvania. The map is the same as that in the edition of Basileæ, 1532. The preface and map are often lacking. See Trömel, No. 10.

"This edition contains, besides the matter of the first, also four supplementary pieces, including the second and third letters of Cortes. The only variation between different copies of the Grynæus maps is that the letter-press portion (the names of the regions) was, in a second issue, set up in a partly altered type. This circumstance, observed in different copies of different editions, has caused some vague statements which catalogues constantly repeat, one from another, concerning the rarity of the map and the existence of counterfeits."—QUARITCH. "Ce recueil renferme la partie de la collection de Grynæus qui se rapporte à l'Amérique, et de plus la dissertation de Varrerius, vulgairement nommé Caspar Barreiros, neveu du célèbre Jean de Barros."—BRUNET. The preface is by Balthasar Lydius. The question whether or not the land of Ophyra was Peru is discussed by Varrerius in this curious and rare volume, which is not always found with the work, although called for by the title and contents.

A German translation by Michael Herr; it is less known and much rarer than the original. The version is somewhat broad, and is distinguished by a certain originality in expression. Although it has no map, it has, on the other hand, the merit of being augmented in the text. It contains a full translation of Peter Martyr's Decades, leaf 174-229, and also his three books "De Legatione Babylonica," 235-248, both wanting in all the different Latin editions. Besides, it contains all the pieces of the first Latin edition of 1532, except Munster's "Introductio in tabulam geograph.," to which the map belongs, and would, therefore, have been superfluous in this edition. The preface by Grynæus is omitted, but a new one by the translator, Michael Herr, is added. It is curious that none of these differences have been noted by HARRISSE. See "Bibliotheca Americana Vetustissima," No. 188; Rich, No. 9; Ternaux, No. 45; "Bibliotheca Grenvilliana," p. 498.

A Dutch translation from the German version, with augmentations, so that it is the most complete of all editions of this valuable collection. It was made by the notary Cornelis Ablyn, who abridged the preface and added a dedication to William, Prince of Orange. The History of the newly discovered Islands of Canaria, on pp. 504-521, exists in no other edition. It is quite rare.

This large Collection of Voyages, compiled by J. Huttich, and edited by Simon Grynæus, with a Geographical Preface by Sebastian Munster, all of the old University of Basle, was printed at the expense of a Jo. Hervagius, a Basle publisher, and should find a place in every public library, inasmuch as the original editions of the Papers of which it is made up are now hardly to be found. Considering the date of the first edition of 1532, the reader should study some of the Voyages with both of his eyes open, the one to detect the mistranslations and the other the misconceptions of inland geographers, who misread the reports of the navigators. It is a grand old book of reference, containing, in a fair Latin version the Voyages, 1. of Cadamosto; 2. Columbus; 3. Alonzo Niño; 4. Vincent Pinzon; 5. Americus Vespucci; 6. Pedro Alvarez Cabral; 7. Joseph the Indian; 8. The Portuguese to India, described in a letter of Emanuel to Leo x.; 9. Varthema; 10. The Holy Land, by Brocard; 11. Marco Polo; 12. Haythou's Tartars; 13. Sarmatia, by Matthew Miechow; 14. Muscovie, by Paulus Jovius; 15. Peter Martyr's New Islands; 16. Stella's Prussia; and 17. Maximilian of Transilvania, his Account of Magellan's Voyage. I have corrected the proof of this series of "Huttich's" in the warehouse of Mr. F. Muller, Bookseller of Amsterdam.

An Impartial History of the War in America, between Great Britain and Her Colonies, from Its Commencement to the end of the Year 1779. Exhibiting a circumstantial, connected, and complete Account of the real Causes, Rise, and Progress of the War, interspersed with Anecdotes and Characters of the different Commanders, and Accounts of such Personages in Congress as have distinguished themselves during the Contest. With an Appendix, containing A Collection of Interesting and Authentic Papers tending to elucidate the History. Illustrated with a Variety of beautiful Copper Plates, representing real and animated Likenesses of those celebrated Generals who have distinguished themselves in the important Contest. London: R.

The portraits of American and British Generals comprise those of Washington, Arnold, Wooster, Putnam, Charles Lee, Com. Hopkins, Samuel Adams, Hancock, Franklin, Gen. Howe, Admiral Howe, American Rifleman. Some copies have the imprint: R. Faulder and J. Milliken; others, Carlisle, 1780. "A work, far from being an impartial history."—Monthly Review, LXIII. 466. It is sought for mainly for the portraits which are usually extracted by the "illustrators." It was altered as to the text and title, and reprinted as:

Contains an abstract of almost all the treaty stipulations of the government with the Indians. Besides the more legal statement of the obligations, by which the savage tribes and the United States authorities mutually bound themselves, there is a vast mass of historical data, the names and numbers of the tribes, the names of the chiefs and their significations, and on page 485 is George Guess' (Sequoiyah's) alphabet of syllables of the Cherokee language. "A valuable compilation, judiciously executed, containing many important documents. This work serves as the text to a very interesting and well written article in the 'North American Review,' xxiv. 345, on the conduct of the Government of the United States towards the Indians within and bordering on their territories, compared with that of the English Government, in answer to an article in the 'London Quarterly Review,' No. 61. The writer (supposed to be Gov. Cass), says, 'We look with deep sympathy on the condition of this feeble remnant, who, like the autumnal foliage of their own forests, are scattered at every blast, but to whom no spring will bring renovation; and we regard with deep solicitude every effort for their preservation and melioration.' These sentiments do honor to the person who wrote them, and should be deeply impressed in the mind of every American. Our country, he should remember, was once theirs, and as we have risen up to greatness, their tribes have dwindled away and disappeared from off the face of the earth. He should recollect that but for us, they might now have been great and flourishing nations, happy in their native forests and hunting the deer, upon the very sites of our greatest cities. With a nature entirely different from that of Europeans, they have never been able to reconcile themselves to their customs and habits: what we call civilization has been death to them. The experience of several generations having shewn that the character of the North American Indian can never assimilate with that of his white brethren, let us leave the small remnant of them unmolested in their wilderness. We, who boast of our Independence, should not surely interfere with theirs."—North American Review, XXIV. 346.

"The reports of the Indian bureau, and of the Commissioner for Indian affairs, form a body of material relating to the Indians, almost unrivaled for its minuteness in any department of history. The names, numbers, and condition of the Indian tribes, are given with all the attention to details and correctness, which a multitude of agents more or less efficient, and sometimes conscientious, could be induced by interest and discipline to collect. To no other source can we look for the progressive steps, by which the savage tribes retreated before the overwhelming charge of the army of civilization. The reports cover the whole history of the dealings of the government with its Indian wards. A complete set is very rarely to be found."—FIELD.

[IRVING.] A History of New York, from the Beginning of the World to the End of the Dutch Dynasty. Containing among many Surprising and Curious Matters, the Unutterable Ponderings of Walter the Doubter, the Disastrous Projects of William the Testy, and the Chivalric Achievements of Peter the Headstrong, the three Dutch Governors of New Amsterdam; being the only Authentic History of the Times that ever hath been, or ever will be Published. By Diedrich Knickerbocker. ... New York: Inskoop & Bradford. 1809. 2 vols., 12mo, pp. xxiii, 268; (2), 258. Folded View of New Amsterdam. B., C., P. 35149

This is the title of the first edition of this admirable fiction. It is not difficult to elicit from its pages a fair proportion of legitimate history. Indeed, it will not be saying too much, to assert that a large portion of the readers of the present day owe their knowledge of the history of New York to the interest created by this unrivaled performance. It has been so repeatedly reprinted that we shall not be surprised to find that the following list of editions is far from complete. We purposely abridge their titles.

[IRVING.] A History of New York ... . London. 1809. 2 vols., 12mo. 35150

[IRVING.] Knickerbocker's History of New York. With Designs by Darley. New York: G. P. Putnam. 1867. 8vo, pp. 459. + [Ibid.] 1867. 8vo, pp. 472. 2 Plates. B. 35165

Some copies were printed on large paper, imp. 8vo. The last edition is New York: G. P. Putnam. 1869. 16mo, pp. 528. Plates. B. It is scarcely necessary to say that it forms one volume of the various editions of Irving's Works issued in England, and sold separately. The following are foreign versions:

[IRVING.] Histoire de New-York depuis le commencement du monde jusqu'à la fin de la domination hollandaise, contenant, entre autres choses curieuses et surprenantes, les innombrables hésitations de Walter-l'-Indécis, les plans désastreux de William-le-Bourru, et les exploits chevalbresques de Pierre-Forte-Tête, les trois Gouverneurs de New-Amsterdam; seule histoire authentique de ces temps qui ait jamais été ou puisse être jamais publiée, par Diedrick Knickerbocker ... traduit de l'Anglais. Paris: A. Sauteret et Cie. MDCCCXXVII. 2 vols., 8vo, pp. (4), 351; (2), 290.

IRVING. A History of the Life and Voyages of Christopher Columbus. By Washington Irving. London: John Murray. MDCCCXXVIII. 4 vols., 8vo, pp. xii, 473, (1); (8), 490, (1); viii, 413, (2); vii, 489, (1). Map. P. + New York: G. & C. Carvill. 1828. 3 vols., 8vo, pp. xvi, 399; 367; viii, 13-419, (1). Map.

See "Edinburgh Review," XLVIII. 1, also "N. A. Rev.," XXVIII. 103. I am unable to determine which of these two is the first edition; Murray's, however, is preferable for its paper and type. Murray's edition, dated 1851, is a reissue of Putnam's of that date. The author remarks that "It is the object of this work to relate the deeds and fortunes of the mariner, who first had the judgment to divine, and the intrepidity to brave, the mysteries of the perilous deep;" and he has in this work presented for the first time, in English, the result of his extensive researches while residing in Spain. See a long note in Rich's "Bib. Am.," II. 209.

This edition also appeared with the imprint Philadelphia: Carey, Lea & Blanchard, 1835, and again as Philadelphia: Carey & Lea, 1840. Some copies of this edition, dated 1838, are so arranged as to form three volumes. Vol. III. starts with, what is in fact, page 82 of Vol. II.

IRVING. The Works of Washington Irving. New Edition, Revised. New York: G. P. Putnam. 1860-63. 23 vols., sq. 8vo. 35218

Of this revised edition one hundred copies were printed on slightly tinted and large paper, and this set, with P. M. Irving's "Life of Irving," forms together twenty-eight volumes. It is unnecessary to add that sets, as thus described, are rare. Of the collected editions of Irving's works, there are so many names given to the various forms, of what are, in fact, the same edition, that it is difficult to discriminate their differences. The one described above is undoubtedly the best. Next, in order of merit, is the "National Edition," in which the same steel and stereotype plates are used—the plates not being so fine; then we have a so-called "Sunnyside Edition;" a "Popular Edition;" and lastly the entire works are printed in a smaller (16mo) size, and are known as the "Knickerbocker Edition." Having given the collations of so many as relate to America, under their respective names, we omit a repetition.

The map is often wanting. Captain James was a native of Bristol, and undertook this voyage with the sanction of King Charles I. at the solicitation and expense of the merchants of that city. It contains some remarkable physical observations respecting the intensity of the cold, and the accumulation of ice in northern latitude; the relations interspersed throughout, with the descriptions of various parts of North America he visited are very interesting. This book is rare in any condition, with the map containing in the upper left corner a portrait of Captain James, especially so; its place is often supplied by a facsimile. The gallant explorer has been censured for the lack of geographical information contained in his book, but the map is assuredly free from any such blame, for it contains a singularly correct delineation of the high latitudes in which Hudson, Baffin, James, and Fox pursued their search for the North-west passage.

"These volumes begin with a short fragment concerning (Jefferson) himself, drawn up at the age of seventy-seven: and close with a still shorter journal kept by him while Secretary of State during Washington's administration. The rest consists exclusively of a voluminous correspondence, ranging from 1775, after blood had been spilt at Boston, to June, 1826, ten days only before his death, so appropriately fixed for the fiftieth anniversary of American Independence."—Edinburgh Review. The contents of these volumes are not embraced in the congressional publications. Reprinted in England as:

[JEFFERSON.] Notes on the State of Virginia; written in the Year 1781, somewhat corrected and enlarged in the winter of 1782, for the use of a Foreigner of distinction, in answer to certain queries proposed by him respecting 1. Its Boundaries. 2. Rivers. 3. Sea ports. 4. Mountains, &c. [Paris.] MDCCLXXXII. 8vo, pp. (2), 391. 35894

Two hundred copies printed, some of which have a "Draught of a Fundamental Constitution ... of Virginia." pp. 14. "This edition of Mr. Jefferson's celebrated 'Notes' was evidently printed in Paris; but as Mr. Jefferson did not reach France until the year 1784, the date on the title probably is not that of the year in which it was printed, but of the year in which the manuscript was completed. A copy presented to M. Malesherbe had the following note, in Mr. Jefferson's handwriting: 'Mr. Jefferson having had a few copies of these notes printed to present to some of his friends, and to some estimable characters beyond that line, takes the liberty of presenting a copy to M. de Malesherbe, as a testimony of his respect to his character. Unwilling to expose them to the public eye, he begs the favour of M. de M. to put them into the hands of no person on whose care and fidelity he cannot rely, to guard them against publication.' RICH, 1. 301. The proof-sheets of this work, with corrections in the handwriting of the author, are in the New York State Library at Albany.

[JEFFERSON.] Observations sur la Virginie, Par M. J***. Traduites de l'Anglois. A Paris: Chez Barrois. 1786. 8vo, pp. (4), viii, 290 [should read 390], (1). Map and Table. H.

This French translation was made by the Abbé Morellet. According to Tucker's "Life of Jefferson," Vol. 1. pp. 155, 173, it was a bookseller's translation, and is a tissue of blunders, although in part revised by the author. The fine map engraved by Neele first appeared in this edition.

JEFFERSON. Notes on the State of Virginia. Written by Thomas Jefferson. Illustrated with A Map, including the States of Virginia, Maryland, Delaware, and Pennsylvania. London: John Stockdale. M. DCC. LXXXVII. 8vo, pp. (4), 382. Map. BA.

Rich, Vol. 1., p. 340, speaks of this edition as a "reprint from an American edition, printed in the same year," which is an error; it is a reproduction of the edition described No. 35894, supra, put forth with Mr. Jefferson's approval, and contains the map which first appeared in the French translation, No. 35895, supra. See Sparks' "Franklin," x. 315, and "M. Rev.," LXXVIII. 377, 450.

JEFFERYS (T.) The American Atlas: Or, A Geographical Description of the Whole Continent of America: wherein are delineated at large, its Several Regions, Countries, States, and Islands; and chiefly The British Colonies, Composed from numerous Surveys, several of which were made by Order of Government. By Major Holland, Lewis Evans, William Scull, Henry Mouzon, Lieut. Ross, J. Cook, Michael Lane, Joseph Gilbert, Gardner, Hillock, &c. &c. Engraved on Forty-Nine Copper-Plates. By The Late Mr. Thomas Jefferys, Geographer to the King, and Others. London: R. Sayer. MDCCLXXVI. Folio, pp. (4). 30 Maps on 49 Plates. H. 35953

This very useful and valuable collection is composed of separate maps, on a large scale, mostly executed by the surveyors of the various colonies between the years 1762-1776. Copies differ in respect to their contents. The following have come under my notice: The American Atlas: ... Engraved on Forty-Eight Copper-Plates. ... London:

Printed by R. Sayer and J. Bennett. MDCCLXXXV. Folio, pp. (4). 29 Maps on 48 Plates. + [Ibid.] MDCCLXXXVIII. Folio, pp. (4). 30 Maps on 49 Plates. B., BA. + [Ibid.] MDCCLXXXII. There is an edition dated 1775, which I have not seen.

The memorial referred to was written by Governor Pownall. The author of the present work says the original is said to be by Governor P———, but that it contains "so many quaint words, and dark expressions, intermixed with so many good thoughts and with so much knowledge of America, that it seems worth translating." Governor Pownall says his ideas have been entirely misrepresented in this work.

BA., C., H.

Better known by its running title of "Wonder-working Providence." There are copies with a different title-page, entitled by "T. H.," and the dedication to all copies is so signed. It is a very rare, curious, and highly interesting volume. It was regarded so very good that it was stolen bodily by one of the "Gorges," and forms a part of "America Painted to the Life" by that enterprising firm. The author had "a most intolerable itch for versifying, celebrating many of his characters in quaint metre." The following is in honor of Gov. Endecot:

"Strong, valiant John, wilt thou march on, and take up station first,
Christ call'd hath thee, his souldier be, and fail not of thy trust;
Wilderness wants, Christ's Grace supplants, then plant his churches pure,
With tongues gifted, and graces led, help thou to his procure;"

and a lot more in the same Tupperian strain. It appeared at the same time with the title changed as below:

[JOHNSON.] Historical Relation of the first planting of the English in New-England in the year 1628 to the year 1653, and all the materiall passages happening there Exactly performed. ... By T. H. [London:] Printed for Nathaniel Brooke, and sold at his Shop at the Angel in Cornhill. 1654. 4to, pp. (4), 236, (4).

It was reprinted in the "Mass. Hist. Soc. Coll.," Second Series, Vols. II., III., IV., VII., VIII.; and again reprinted as below:

There are very considerable alterations and additions in the edition of 1616, including an article of fourteen pages on America, which is not in the edition of 1603. In describing Virginia, it says, "Tobacco now begins to be so base and low prized that it is scarcely worth the costs and labour of bringing." This book is commonly ascribed to Johnson, but it appears to be due to some foreign author.

The object of the author seems to be to defend the Quebec Bill, which protects the Canadians in the exercise of the Roman Catholic religion. The American Colonies classed this bill among their grievances. The author of the tract in question shows that many of the colonies extended the same rights to Roman Catholics that the Quebec Bill did to the Canadians.

"This tract claims its importance from the celebrity of its author. It was written in the sixty-sixth year of his age, when he was at the meridian of his fame. Bancroft describes it at length as an exemplification of the tone of public sentiment then prevailing in England. It called forth several replies, each of which is aimed at pointing out the fallacy that lurks in its title as well as in all its reasonings."—J. R. BARTLETT. See "M. Rev.," LII. 446, 548; LIII. 574, also McCulloch's "Literature of Political Economy," p. 89.

The following are some of the replies :

JOHNSTONE. Gov. Johnstone's Speech on American Affairs, on the Address in Answer to the King's Speech. ... Edinburgh: John Wood. M,DCC,LXXVI. 12mo, pp. (2), 16. H. 36399

Governor Johnstone charges the government with having drawn all its knowledge of colonial affairs from Governor Hutchinson. "The civil war in America," he says, "seems step by step to have been carried on by his advice. Whoever reads his letters lately published, sees every measure pursued by the administration to have been antecedently pointed out by him, until his sentiments seem dictated at last more by revenge and disappointment than any other principle."

Par M. Joly de St. Valier, Lieut.-Col. d'Infanterie. II. Partie. On trouvera dans cette seconde partie les vrais motifs qui ont porté les Ministres d'Angleterre à ordonner les actes d'hostilité contre les Provinces Unies ; motifs d'autant plus intéressants à connoître qu'il paraît que personne jusqu'ici ne les a pas même soupçonné. Amsterdam : B. Haw. MDCCLXXXI. 8vo, pp. x, 52. 36426

No printer or publisher in London would have anything to do with this second part, therefore the author was obliged to have it printed in Holland.

Very rare. The lower part of the title with the imprint is usually cut off. "It has lately been seen that the booksellers, dreading the keenness of the Ministry's resentment, refused to vend the English translation of the 'Exposure,' &c., which has laid the author under the necessity of vending it at his own lodgings," &c. "From a printed letter from the same person to Mr. Pitt dated Bridewell, December, 1784, it appears that his pamphlet had got him into difficulties, that he had been imprisoned, and had been released on condition of his leaving England ; that the 'Chevalier Yorke' had had something to do with it, for which he felt himself aggrieved, and in consequence returned to England, and sent him a challenge, for which he was again condemned to a year's imprisonment in Bridewell."—RICH.

By Hugh Jones, A.M. Chaplain to the Honourable Assembly, and lately Minister of James-Town, &c. in Virginia. London: Printed for J. Clarke, at the Bible, under the Royal-Exchange. M DCC XXIV. 8vo, pp. (4), viii, 151, (1). B., P., s. 36511

Contains an account of the Tramontane Order, the state of the Church, and many other valuable particulars of the then existing order of affairs in Virginia. "This is one of the scarcest works relating to Virginia published in this century. The author thinks that the settlement of America by the Europeans is a fulfillment of the scriptural text on his title-page, Japheth being the English, Shem the Indians, and Canaan the Negroes." —RICH, 1. Mr. Rich rather overstates its rarity. Reprinted as:

"The second edition is much enlarged by the authentic papers added by J. K. J. de Jonge, the son of the author. It is the most authentic history of the Dutch navy, founded entirely on documents in the royal archives. Its value for the American collector needs not to be specified, as it contains very ample material for the history of the West-India-Company, the early expeditions to America, the wars with the Spaniards and Portuguese there, and the transmarine."—MULLER.

BA. + Second Edition. London: G. Widdows. 1675. Sm. 8vo. H.

The second edition is the first, with a new title-page only. Both are rare. "The relation is curious and faithful—when the author makes his own remarks they are in the oddest, most uncouth expressions imaginable."—LOCKE. It was reprinted in the "Mass. Hist. Soc. Coll.," Vol. III., 3d Series; and again reprinted with numerous annotations as below:

JOSSELYN. An Account of Two Voyages to New-England, Made during the years 1638, 1663. By John Josselyn, Gent. Boston: William Veazie. MDCCCLXV. 4to, pp. vii, (4), 211. BA.

Seventy-five copies printed in medium 4to, and twenty-five on large paper.

JOSELYN. New-Englands | Rarities | Discovered : | in | Birds, Beasts, Fishes, Serpents, | and Plants of that Country. | Together with | The Physical and Chyrurgical Remedies | wherewith the Natives constantly use to | Cure their Distempers, Wounds | and Sores. | Also | A Perfect Description of an Indian Sqva, | in all her Bravery ; with a Poem not | improperly conferr'd upon her. | Lastly | A Chronological Table | of the most remarkable Passages in that | Country amongst the English. | Illustrated with Cvts. | By John Josselyn, Gent. | London, Printed for G. Widdowes at the | Green Dragon in St. Pauls Church-yard. 1672. | Sm. 8vo, pp. (4), 114, (2). Winged Dragon ; and folded Plate at page 54. B., H.

Rare. "The earliest work on the Natural History of New England."—RICH. The description of the "Indian Sqva, in all her Bravery," together with the "Poem not improperly conferr'd upon her," occupy pp. 99 to 102. The description of Indian medicaments, and the use made of various herbs by the natives, occupy much of the remainder of the work. The winged dragon is the printer's device. The following reprint is rendered valuable by the numerous additions by the editor :

JOSELYN. New-England's Rarities discovered in Birds, Beasts, Fishes, Serpents, and Plants of that Country. By John Josselyn, Gent. With an Introduction and Notes, By Edward Tuckerman, M.A. Boston: William Veazie. MDCCCLXV. 4to, pp. viii, 169. BA. 36675

Traducido al Español por el Coronel Jose Maria Tornel, Ministro de Mexico en los Estados Unidos. Nueva York : José Desnoues. 1831. 12mo. 36761

With a preface and some valuable notes by the translator. This edition, though printed in New York, was put forth for the Mexican market.

JOUTEL. A | Journal | Of the Last | Voyage | Perform'd by |
 Monsr. de la Sale, | To the | Gulph of Mexico, | To find out the |
 Mouth of the Missisipi [sic] River ; | Containing, | An Account of the Settlements he endeavour'd to | make on the Coast of the aforesaid Bay, his | unfortunate Death, and the Travels of his |
 Companions for the Space of Eight Hundred | Leagues across that Inland Country of America, | now call'd Louisiana, (and given by the King of | France to M. Crozat,) till they came into Canada. |
 Written in French by Monsieur Joutel, | A Commander in that Expedition ; | And Translated from the Edition just publish'd at Paris. | With an exact Map of that vast Country, and a Copy of the | Letters Patents granted by the K. of France to M. Crozat. |

don: | Printed for Bernard Lintot. | 1719. 8vo, pp. (2), xxi, (9),
 205, (5). Map. B., c. 36763

This curious relation was the last which the public received of the unfortunate expedition in which La Sale was assassinated by some of his men, March 19, 1687. It was written by one of the companions of that celebrated traveler, who seems to have been the only one on whom La Sale could rely. Charlevoix speaks highly of Joutel, and of the services he rendered to La Sale. Mr. Parkman remarks, "Of the three narratives of this journey, those of Joutel, Cavalier and Douay, the first is by far the best. That of Cavalier seems the work of a man of confused brain and indifferent memory. Joutel's account is of a very different character, and seems to be the work of an honest and intelligent man. Douay's account is brief, but it agrees with that of Joutel in most essential points."—France and England in North America, Part III., p. 356. See also B. F. French's "Hist. Coll.," i.

Brunet says of this rare work "Cet ouvrage, le plus volumineux, peut-être, qui ait paru aux Philippines, rarement se trouve complet." The sixth and the following volumes have the imprint, En el Conv. de Nra. Sra. de Loreto del Pueblo de Sampaloc, por el Hermano Balbasar Mariano. Donado Franciscano, Año de 1788. The best and most complete work on the Philippine Islands; it is highly important in reference to the Spanish possessions in that country and incidentally to their Spanish-American territory.

JUAN and ULLOA (A. de). Dissertacion Historica y Geographica sobre el meridiano de demarcacion entre los Dominios de España y Portugal, y los parages por donde passa en la America Meridional, conforme a los Tratados, y derechos de cada Estado, y las mas seguras y modernas observaciones. Por Don Jorge Juan, ... y Don Antonio de Ulloa ... . En Madrid, en la Imprenta de Antonio Marin. 1749. 12mo, pp. 175. 36802

The boundary line between the Spanish and Portuguese possessions in America was a subject of discussion from the time of the infallible decision of Pope Alexander vi. until they became independent States. This important treatise on the subject was prepared by two of the most learned men in Spain."—RICH, i. 95. It was translated into French as below:

Londres: En la Imprenta de R. Taylor. 1826. Folio, pp. (4), xiii, 707, (1). 2 Portraits. BA., C. 36807

"These secret memoirs, in which everything concerning the manners, government, and state of defence of that portion of America which once belonged to Spain, is accurately described, are written with that truth, impartiality and good judgment which distinguished the informants."—SALVA, No. 4121. The benevolent and virtuous Las Casas has been accused of exaggeration and falsehood in his account of the cruelties of the Spaniards to the Indians, but these revelations, which have lain in the archives of Madrid for over half a century, exhibit so monstrous a system that it is difficult to realize that the revelations are true. There are copies on large paper with portraits in India paper.

Folio, pp. (72), xxviii, 396, (12). Portrait, Plates, and Maps. H. 36809

This second edition contains a memoir of the author. The historical relation was written by Ulloa, the astronomical part by Juan. The expedition to which it relates was the one to which La Condamine and Bouguer were sent by the French Academy of Sciences, for the purpose of determining the figure of the Earth at the Equator. There are copies on large paper.

JUAN. Relacion Historica del Viage à la America Meridional hecho de Orden de S. Mag. Para Medir Algunos Grados De Meridiano Terrestre, y venir por ellos en conocimiento de la verdadera Figura, y Magnitud de la Tierra, con otras varias Observaciones Astronomicas, y Phisicas: Por Don Jorge Juan, .. y Don Antonio de Ulloa ... . En Madrid: Por Antonio Marin y Juan de Zuñiga, año de M.DCC.XLVIII. 4 vols., folio, Frontispiece, pp. (24), 404; (4), 405-682; (12), 379; (4), 381-603. 34 Plates. A., BA., C., H. 36811

"The voyage of Ulloa arose out of the desire of the French government to send certain members of the Academy of Sciences to measure a degree in the equinoctial countries of Peru. This request was not only accorded in the most courteous manner, but the King of Spain conceived the idea of sharing the honor of a scheme devoted to the advancement of knowledge, and sent two of the most scientific officers of the Spanish navy to accompany the expedition. The party carried on a series of operations of unexampled difficulty, and encountered hardships and sufferings which demanded the strength of the strongest constitutions and the energy of minds stimulated by a love of science. Much information was collected and published, which for the want of later, has been reproduced in other works on South America." The work has been many times reprinted. There are copies on large paper.

JUAN. Voyage Historique de l'Amérique meridionale fait par ordre du roi d'Espagne Par Don George Juan ... et Par Don Antoine de Ulloa ... Ouvrage orné des figures, plans et cartes necessaires. pp. (22), 554; (2), 316, (6); Astronomical Observations, (6), 309, (3). 45 Maps and Plates. B., BA. 36812

Some copies of this French translation have the imprint, Paris: Charles Antoine Jombert. MDCCLII; this has given rise to the idea that an edition was printed there, which is not the case; there is merely a change in the title. The translator was M. de Mauvillon.

Illustrated with Plates. London: John Stockdale. 1807. 2 vols., 8vo, pp. xxvii, 479; iv, 419, (14). Map and 7 Folded Plates. 36813

This translation is somewhat mutilated and abridged. "Juan and Ulloa's Travels may be selected as the most entertaining and satisfactory work of its kind; they are the acknowledged source of much that has been published in other forms."—Retrospective Review. Either from ignorance or design, John Adams, Esq., who merely furnished the account of the Brazils, is made to appear to be the translator of the two last editions of the work. See Knox's "New Collection of Voyages," 1., also Mavor's "Voyages," 11.

JUANA INES DE LA CRUZ. Fama, y Obras Posthumas de Fenix de Mexico, Decima Musa, Poetisa Americana, sor Juana Ines De La Cruz ... Madrid: Manuel Ruiz de Murga. 1700. Sm. 4to, pp. (142), 210, (5). B. 36814

 470, (5); (20), 352, 3. B. 36815

The third volume consists of verses by Spanish-American writers in her praise. The first volume contains pieces in Mexican, in Negro-Spanish, in Basque, and in Latin mixed up with the Spanish poems. The works of this accomplished lady are so rare, and so generally unknown, that it will be difficult to find a reference to them in bibliographical hand-books. "Bouterwek places her on a level with Lope de Vega for facility of invention and versification, and considers some of the dramatic pieces of the Mexican nun (especially that entitled 'El Divino Narcisso') as surpassing in merit all the similar writings of the Spanish poet." For other editions of her works see Vol. v., Nos. 17733-35.

JUAREZ (Benito), Gobernador. Esposicion al Soberano Congreso al abrir sus sesiones el 2 de Julio de 1848. Oaxaca. 1848.

The first edition is rare. The author was a native of Guatemala. It is mostly taken from a manuscript history by Fuentes y Guzman. The following translation is somewhat abridged:

JUARROS. A Statistical and Commercial History of the Kingdom of Guatemala, in Spanish America; Containing Important Particulars relative to its Productions, Manufactures, Customs, &c. ... JUDÆIS (Cornelii de). Speculum Orbis Terrarum. Antverpiæ: A. Coninckx. 1593. Folio. 36826

The maps of the World, spherical and Mercator's projection, are curious as giving America, with land reaching both to the North and South Pole, of which Polar regions also separate maps are given. Of America, one map is devoted to Brazil and Peru, including Mexico, Yucatan, and the West Indies; another to North America, from the Gulf of Mexico to the North Pole, in which California, Florida, Virginia, Labrador, Nova Francia, exhibit the names of the Indian tribes then inhabiting those countries, with costumes of the natives of Virginia, the present United States. The letter-press which accompanies the maps gives an outline description of each territory.

[JUNIUS.] An Enquiry into the Conduct of a late Right Honourable Commoner. London: J. Almon. [n. d.] 8vo, pp. 72.

This scarce pamphlet relates to William Pitt, afterwards Earl of Chatham.

[JUNIUS.] A Letter To an Honourable Brigadier General, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Forces in Canada. London: J. Burd. 1760. 8vo, pp. (2), 31, (1). 36903

The brigadier-general is Lord George Townshend, against whom the writer makes serious charges for incompetency in the campaigns in Canada. Written by "Junius" six years before the publication of his celebrated Letters, and unknown to all the editors. See Britton on the Author of "Junius." It elicited the following:

A Refutation of the Letter to an Hon<sup>ble</sup> Brigadier-General, Commander of His Majesty's Forces in Canada. By an Officer. ... London: R. Stevens. MDCCLX. 8vo, pp. (2), 52. + The Second Edition. [Ibid.] + The Fourth Edition. [Ibid.] 36904

See Walpole's "George III.," i. 21, Sparks' "Life of Charles Lee," p. 15, and "Notes and Queries," Third Series, III., 122. The "Refutation" is probably by Lord Thurlow. Both of these pamphlets were reproduced with the following title:

JUNIUS. "A Letter to an Honourable Brigadier General, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Forces in Canada." London, 1760. Now First Ascribed to Junius. To which is added, "A Refutation of the Letter, Etc., By an Officer." With incidental Notices of Lords Townshend and Sackville, Sir Philip Francis, and others. Edited by N. W. Simons, of the British Museum. London: William Pickering. 1841. Fcap 8vo, pp. (4), xxiv, 110. B., BA. 36905

These pieces are all, of course, included in the various and multitudinous editions of "Junius;" we content ourselves with recording a few only of the editions of that "great unknown" political writer.

JUNIUS. ... London: Printed for Henry Sampson Woodfall ... MDCCLXXII. 2 vols., 12mo, Engraved Titles, pp. vii, xxxii, 208; 356, Index, 19 l. 36906

The original edition—some copies have no date.

JUNIUS. ... London: Printed by T. Bensley. 1797. 2 vols., 8vo, pp. xxx, 274; v, 318. 36907

A beautiful edition, with portraits, head and tail-pieces.

JUNIUS. ... Illustrated by Mr. Edward Bocquet, Historical Engraver, from Original Paintings. London. 1812. 4to. 12 Portraits. 36908

Among the portraits are Lord Chatham, John Wilkes, &c.

JUNIUS. The Letters of Junius complete ... with Notes Biographical and Explanatory; also, A Prefatory Inquiry respecting the real author. By John Almon. London. 1806. 2 vols., 12mo. 36909

JUNIUS, including Letters by the Same Writer, under other Signatures (Now first collected), to which are added, his Confidential Correspondence with Mr. Wilkes, and his Private Letters addressed to Mr. H. S. Woodfall. With a Preliminary Essay, Notes, Facsimiles, &c. London: Printed by G. Woodfall. 1812. 3 vols., 8vo, pp. xii, 336, 248; xi, 516; xiii, 511, (1). + Second Edition. [Ibid.] 1814. 3 vols., 8vo. + A New ... Edition, by John Wade. London: Henry G. Bohn. 1850. 2 vols., post 8vo. 36910

Repeatedly reprinted. Several of the letters relate to American questions. Woodfall's edition is generally regarded as the best. There are numerous American editions; the first is Pbiladelphia, 1795. 12mo. Woodfall's edition was reprinted in Pbiladelphia, 1813 and 1836; of this last some copies were printed on writing paper for the late E. D. Ingraham. In Bohn's edition of Lowndes' "Bibliographer's Manual," is a list of the various editions of "Junius," as well as of the many controversial books and pamphlets relating to the authorship of these remarkable letters. Respecting the authorship of "Junius" see Allibone's "Dictionary."

[JUNIUS.] The Political Contest; Containing, a Series of Letters, between Junius and Sir William Draper: Also the whole of Junius' Letters to his Grace the D*** of G***** Brought into one point of view. London: F. Newbery. [n. d.] 8vo, pp. (4), 55; Part II. pp. (2), 38. + The Second Edition. [Ibid.]

JUNIUS. The Posthumous Writings of Junius. To which is prefixed, an Inquiry respecting the Author, also a Sketch of the Life of John Horne Tooke. New York: G. & C. & H. Carvill. 1829. 8vo, pp. 428. Portrait and Facsimile. 36912

JUNIUS. A Serious Letter to the Public, on the late Transaction between Lord North and the Duke of Gordon. By Junius. London: Hooper and Davis, MDCCLXXVIII. 8vo, pp. 24.

JUNIUS Unmasked: or, Thomas Paine the author of the Letters of Junius, and the Declaration of Independence. Washington, D. C.: John Gray & Co. 1872. 12mo, pp. 322. H. 36914

The date of this title is later than that of books usually included in this "Dictionary;" its audacity is our apology for letting it appear.

The Justice and Necessity of Taxing the American Colonies, Demonstrated. Together with a Vindication of the Authority of Parliament. London: J. Almon. 1766. 8vo, pp. 36. B., BA.

"This is, in truth, a most fiery politician, and his pamphlet a mere firebrand. In reply to the objections of the colonists to a standing army, he says that they have need of the gentlemen of the blade, to polish and refine their manners, to rub off the rust of puritanism," etc.—Monthly Review, xxxiv. 71.

The Justice and Necessity of the War with our American Colonies Considered. [n. p. 1775.] 8vo, Half Title, pp. 50.

The writer lays the whole blame for the disputes between Great Britain and her colonies to the latter. "After the most violent outrage on private property," he says, "the most haughty refusal of satisfaction when demanded, and the most daring resistance to the execution of the laws, they have resorted to open rebellion to justify their conduct. ... Liberty was but a pretence, for they were always free; independence was their aim."

A very rare imprint.

KEITH. An Account of the Great Divisions, Amongst the Quakers in Pensilvania, &c. As appears by their own Book, here following, Printed 1692. and lately came from thence, intituled, viz. The Plea of the Innocent, against the False Judgment of the Guilty, Being a Vindication of George Keith and his Friends, who are joyned with him in this present Testimony, from the False Judgment, Calumnies, false Informations and Defamations of Samuel Jenings, John Simcock, Thomas Lloyd, and others, joyned with them, being in Number Twenty Eight. Directed, by way of Epistle, to Faithful Friends of Truth, in Pensilvania, East and West-Jersey, and else-where, as occasion requireth. ... London: ... John Gwillim ... 1692. 4to, pp. 26. 37178

Signed by "George Keith" and "Thomas Budd." It is a reprint of "The Plea of the Innocent," No. 37205, infra. The errata at the foot of page 26 is not in some copies.

KEITH. An|Answer|to|Mr. Samuëll Willard|(One of the Ministers at Boston in New-England)|his|Reply|To my Printed Sheet, called, A Dangerous and|hurtful Opinion maintained by him, viz.|That the Fall of Adam, and all the Sins of Men necessarily|come to pass by virtue of Gods Decree and his Determining both of the Will of Adam, and of all other Men to|Sin.|By George Keith, M.A.|Printed and Sold by William Bradford at the Sign of the Bible|in New-York, 1704.| 4to, pp. (4), 41. N.

Dedicated "To his Excellency Edward Viscount Cornbury Captain General and Governour in Chief in and over Her Majesties Provinces of New-York, and New-Jersey," etc. Very rare.

KEITH. The Anti-Christ and Sadducees detected Among a Sort of Quakers; or, Caleb Pusie, of Pensilvania, and John Pennington; with his Brethren ... Proved Anti-Christ's and Sadducees, out of a Printed Book lately published by them, Falsly called a Modest Account of the principal Difficulties betwixt George Keith, and ... Quakers in Pensilvania, etc. ... By George Keith. London: The Author. [n. d.] 4to, pp. 44.

Like all people of his kind Mr. Keith is an intemperate pamphleteer. Having twice been a Quaker he became an Episcopalian and in the long title to this tract refers to his late co-workers as "A gang and sort of Quakers" [sic].

[KEITH.] An Appeal from the Twenty-eight Judges To The Spirit of Truth & true Judgment In all Faithful Friends, called Quakers, that meet at this Yearly Meeting at Burlington, the 7 month, 1692. [Philadelphia: William Bradford. 1692.] Sm. 4to, pp. 8. 37181

Extremely rare. Signed by "George Keith," "Thomas Budd," and four others. For place, printer, and date of publication, see "Books to be sold by William Bradford in Philadelphia, 1692." at the end of "A True Copy of Three Judgements," No. 37223, infra. For printing this book Bradford was imprisoned, upon the charge of "uttering and spreading a malicious and seditious paper." His tools and type were taken away from him, and this was the beginning of the persecution which afterwards drove him, with his printing-press, from Philadelphia to New York, in 1693. For an account of his arrest and committal to prison, evidently written by himself, see the postscript at the end of this tract. Smith says "Reprinted at New York" ?

KEITH. The Causeless Ground of Surmises, Jealousies and unjust Offences remov'd, in a full Clearing of Faithfull Friends, and a sober Vindication of my Innocency, and the Friends concerned with me, in relation to the late Religious Differences and Breaches among some of the People called Quakers in America. By Geo. Keith. London, Printed for R. Levis. 1694. 4to, pp. 16.

dent and vile Calumnies against us and our Brethren, in his late Address, so called, to some in New-England, in which in due time may receive a more full answer, to discover his Ignorance, Prejudice and Perversion against our Friends in general and G. K. in particular, whom he hath most unworthily abused. To which is added some Testimonies of our Antient Friends to the true Christ of God; &c. ... Printed and Sold by William Bradford at Philadelphia in Pennsylvania, in the Year 1692. Sm. 4to, pp. 16. 37185

Extremely rare. Signed by "George Keith," and twelve others. The "Testimonies," which fill eight pages, are signed by "Will. Bradford." Unnoticed in Smith's "Catalogue of Friends' Books."

KEITH. The Christian Quaker; or, George Keith's Eyes opened. Good News from Pensilvania. Containing a Testimony against that False and Absurd Opinion which some hold, viz. That all true Believers and Saints, immediately after the Bodily Death attain to all the Resurrection they Expect, and enter into the fullest Enjoyment of Happiness, And also, That the Wicked, immediately after Death, are raised up to receive all the Punishment they are to Expect. Together with a Scriptural Account of the Resurrection of the Dead, Day of Judgment, and Christ's last Coming and Appearance without us. Also, Where, and What these Heavens are into which the Man Christ is gone, and entered into. By George Keith. Printed in Pensilvania, and Reprinted in London for Benjamin [should be Elias] Keach ... . 1693. 4to, pp. 12. c. 37186

An exact reprint of "A Testimony," etc., No. 37221, infra, except the title.

Aylmer, at the Three-Pigeons over-against the Royal-Exchange in Cornhill.* 1706. 4to, pp. (4), 92. B., BA., C., H., P. 37199

Page 89 contains an "Account of the several Treatises" written and published "in print, in North America," by George Keith, "within the time of his abode there, in the years 1702 and 1703 to 1704." The "Journal" contains few facts interesting to an historian, but a regular notice of his disputes with the Quakers, and the texts from which he preached. The "Journal" was reprinted in Vol. 1. of the "Historical Collections of the Protestant Episcopal Church."

KEITH. The Judgment given by Twenty Eight Quakers against George Keith and his Friends; With Answers to the said Judgment, Declaring those Twenty Eight Quakers to be No Christians: As also an Appeal (for which several were imprisoned, &c.) by the said George Keith, &c. to the Yearly Meeting. Sept. 1692. With a full Account of the said Yearly Meeting. Signed by 70 Quakers. ... [Philadelphia: Printed by William Bradford.] 1693. 4to, pp. 24. BM. 37200

In the British Museum Catalogue this is dated 1694, but Thomas puts it under date 1693. It was reprinted in London. 1694. 4to, pp. 22. See Smith's Catalogue, II. 28.

A reprint of "The Christian Faith," No. 37185, supra.

[KEITH.] New-England's Spirit of Persecution Transmitted To Pennsylvania, And the Pretended Quaker found Persecuting the True Christian-Quaker, In the Tryal Of Peter Boss, George Keith, Thomas Budd, and William Bradford, At the Sessions held at Philadelphia the Nineth, Tenth and Twelfth Days of December, 1692. Giving an Account of the most Arbitrary Proceedure of that Court. [Philadelphia:] Printed [by William Bradford] in the Year 1693. 4to, pp. (2), 38. 37203

Of extreme rarity. Doubts have been entertained whether this volume was really printed at Philadelphia, on the ground that the printer having suffered imprisonment for printing and publishing "An Appeal" would not likely have ventured to issue a work of this character there, and thus subject himself to a probable recurrence of farther difficulty with the authorities. It has been surmised that the tract might have been printed at New York, but in that case Bradford could have had no possible reason for withholding his name from the title-page. On the other hand, our printer, having been discharged from arrest and had his press restored to him by Gov. Fletcher on the sole ground of his having been imprisoned for "a religious difference," could not have had any misgivings whatever respecting the publication of a bare recital of the trial and attendant circumstance, with its present imprint. Nor was one of his resolute characters, mistaking under what he conceived to be an outrage and a wrong, likely to withhold its publication during the five months which elapsed between the termination of the trial and its settlement at New York. It is of much historical interest in connection with the earliest efforts to establish the press in the middle colonies, and gives a very curious and interesting insight into the social economy and manners of the early Quaker settlers in Pennsylvania as well as some account of printers and printing at the time. It was reprinted as "Tryals," etc., No. 37226, infra, and is of almost equal rarity.

KEITH. The Notes of the True Church With the Application of them to the Church of England, And the great Sin of Separation from Her. Delivered in A Sermon Preached at Trinity Church in New-York, Before the Administration of the holy Sacrament of the Lords Supper. The 7th of November, 1703. By George Keith, M.A. Printed and Sold by William Bradford at the Sign of the Bible in New-York. 1704. 4to, pp. (7), 20.

Exceedingly rare.

[KEITH.] The Plea of The Innocent Against the False Judgment of the Guilty. Being a Vindication of George Keith and his Friends, who are joyned with him in this present Testimony, from the False Judgment, Calumnies, False Informations and Defamations of Samuell Jenings, John Simcock, Thomas Lloyd, and others joyned with them, being in Number Twenty-Eight. Directed by way of Epistle to faithful Friends of Truth in Pennsilvania, East and West-Jarsey, and else-where, as Occasion requireth. [Philadelphia: William Bradford. 1692.] 4to, pp. 24. 37205

Signed by "George Keith," and "Thomas Budd." For imprint see list of "Books," etc., at the end of "Some of the Fundamental Truths," etc. For a reprint see "An Account," etc., No. 37178, supra.

KEITH. A Refutation of the Three Opposers of Truth by Plain Evidence of the Holy Scriptures, viz. I. Of Pardon Tillinghast, who pleadeth for water Baptism, its being a Gospel Precept, and Opposeth Christ within as a false Christ. To which is added something concerning the Spirit, &c. II. Of B. Keech in his Book called a Tutor for Children, where he disputeth against the sufficiency of the Light within, in order to Salvation; and calleth Christ in the Heart a false Christ in the secret Chamber. III. Of Cotton Mather, who in his Appendix to his Book called Memorable Providences relating to Witchcraft, &c., doth so weakly defend his Father Increase Mather from being justly chargeable with abusing the honest People called Quakers, that he doth the more lay open his Father's Nakedness; and besides the Abuses and Injuries that his Father had cast upon that People, C. Mather the son addeth New abuses of his own. And a few words of a Letter to John Cotton called a Minister at Plymouth in New-England. Philadelphia: Printed and Sold by William Bradford. 1690. 4to, pp. 74. W. 37212

KEITH. A | Reply to Mr. Increase Mather's | Printed Remarks | on a | Sermon | Preached by G. K. at Her Majesty's Chappel | in Boston, the 14th of June, 1702. | In Vindication of the Six good Rules in | Divinity there delivered. | Which he hath attempted (though very Feebly and Unsuc-|cessfully) to Refute. | By George Keith, M.A. | Printed and Sold by William Bradford at the Bible in | New York. 1703. 4to, pp. 35. 37213

KEITH. A Seasonable Information and Caveat Against a Scandalous Book of Thomas Elwood, called An Epistle to Friends, &c. By George Keith. London: R. Levis. 1694. 4to, pp. 40. 37214

KEITH. A | Serious Appeal | to all the more Sober, Impartial & Judicious People | in | Nevv-England | to whose Hands this may come, | Whether Cotton Mather in his late Address, &c. hath not | extremely failed in proving the People call'd Quakers guilty | of manifold Heresies, Blasphemies and strong Delusions, | and whether he hath not much rather proved himself ex-|tremely Ignorant and greatly possessed with a Spirit of | Perversion, Error, Prejudice and envious Zeal against them | in general, and G. K. in particular, in his most uncharit-|able and rash Judgment against him, | Together with a Vindication of our | Christian Faith | In those Things Sincerely Believed by us, especially respect-|ing the Fundamental Doctrines and Principles of | Christian Religion. | By George Keith. | Printed and Sold by William Bradford at Philadelphia in Pennsylv-|vania, in the year 1692. 4to, pp. (4), 67.

In answer to Cotton Mather. An exceedingly rare piece.

[KEITH.] Some brief Remarks upon a late Book en-|titled "George Keith once more brought to | the Test," &c., having the Name of Caleb | Pusey at the end of the Preface, and C. P. | at the end of the Book. | [New York: William Bradford. 1704.] Sm. 4to, pp. 20. 37216

Dated "March 2, 1704," and signed by "George Keith." At the end of the tract is a certificate signed by "William Bradford," respecting the manner of his discharge from arrest by Gov. Fletcher. A great part of the volume is occupied with that subject.

KEITH. Some of the Fundamental Truths of Christianity. Briefly hinted at, by Way of Q<sup>u</sup>estion and Answer. With a Postscript by the Author G. K. The Third Edition. [Philadelphia: William Bradford. 1692.] Sm. 4to, pp. 15, (1). 37217

At the end of this very rare tract is a list of "Books lately Printed and to be Sold by William Bradford in Philadelphia, 1692."

[KEITH.] Some of the many false, scandalous, blasphemous, & self-contradictory Assertions of William Davis, faithfully collected out of his Book, printed Anno 1700. entituled, Jesus the Crucified Man, the Eternal Son of God, &c. in exact quotations word for word, without adding or diminishing. [New York: William Bradford. 1703.] Sm. 4to, pp. 12. 37218

Dated "Philadelphia, the 26th of March, 1703." Signed by "George Keith," and "Evan Evans." This rare tract is Keith's account of his public recantation from, and denouncement of Quakerism, under the patronage and protection of the Rev. Evan Evans, the then Minister of Christ Church and Rector of Philadelphia. The proceed-ings became so turbulent that Keith and his newly acquired friends were turned out of the meeting-house, in which they were assembled, into the street; while the Quaker Mayor, William Shippen, fearing a breach of the peace, sent "the constable," also a Quaker, "with his constables staff" to disperse them, which he did; an act that caused much animadversion.

[KEITH.] Some Reasons and Causes of the Late Speration that hath come to pass at Philadelphia betwixt us, called by some the Sperate Meeting, and Others that meet apart from us. More particularly opened to Vindicate and Clear us and our Testimony in that respect, viz: That the Separation lyeth at their Door, and They (and not We) are justly chargeable with it. With An Account of our Sincere Christian Faith. [Philadelphia: Printed by William Bradford. 1692.] Sm. 4to, pp. 36. 37219

For imprint see list of "Books," etc., at the end of "Some Fundamental Truths."

KEITH. The | Spirit | of | Railing Shimei | and of | Baal's Four Hundred Lying Prophets | Entered into | Caleb Pusey | and his | Quaker-Brethren in Pennsylvania, | who Approve him. Containing an Answer to his and their Book, falsly | called, Proteus Ecclesiasticus, Detecting many of their gross | Falshoods, Lyes, Calumnies, Perversions and Abuses, as well | as his and their gross Ignorance and Infidelity contained in | their said Book. | By George Keith, A.M. | Printed and Sold by William Bradford at the Sign of the Bible | in New York. 1703. 4to, pp. (6), 61. 37220

Very rare. Dedicated "To His Excellency Coll. Francis Nicholson, Her Majesties Lieut. and Governour General of the Dominion of Virginia."

KEITH. A Testimony against That False and Absurd Opinion Which some hold, viz: That all True Believers and Saints immediately after the Bodily Death attain to all the Resurrection they expect, and enter into the fullest Enjoyment of Happiness. And also That the Wicked, immediately after Death, are raised up to receive all the Punishment they are to expect. By George Keith. [Philadelphia: William Bradford. 1692.] 4to, pp. 12.

KEITH. The True Copy of a Paper Given in to the Yearly Meeting of the People called Quakers, ... 1695. By George Keith ... Together with a short List of some of the vile and gross Errors of George Whitehead, John Whitehead, William Penn, their chief Ministers, and now having the greatest sway among them (being of the same sort and nature with the gross Errors charged on some in Pensilvania) ... And a Proposition to VWilliam Penn, to prove his charge, That G. K. is an Apostate. London: Printed for R. Levis. 1695. 4to, pp. 32. 37222

[KEITH.] A True Copy of three Judgements given forth by a Party of Men, called Quakers at Philadelphia, against George Keith and his Friends. With two Answers to the said Judgements. [Also:] An Expostulation with Samuell Jenings, Thomas Lloyd and the rest of the twenty-eight Unjust Judges &c. ... [Philadelphia: William Bradford. 1692.] Sm. 4to, pp. 9, 7, (1).

Very rare. At the end of this tract is a list of "Books to be Sold by William Bradford in Philadelphia. 1692." in which nearly all the untitled and undated books printed by Bradford, and described in this "Dictionary," will be found. In addition to the interesting book-list with its prices ranging from 4d. to 9d. per volume, there is the following curious note concluding the final page: "And whereas it is reported, That the Printer, being a favourer of G. K. he will not print for any other, which is the reason that the other Party appear not in print as well as G. K. These are to signifie, that the Printer hath not yet refused to print any thing for either Party, and also signifies that he doth not refuse, but is willing and ready to print any thing for the future that G. K.'s Opposers shall bring to him." Signed "Thomas Budd, William Bradford," and five others. Smith says it was reprinted at New York, 1693.

[KEITH.] A Vision concerning the mischievous Separation among Friends in Old England. Printed and sold by Will. Bradford, at Philadelphia. 1692. 4to, pp. 8. 37228

"George Keith was originally a member of the Society of Friends. In 1682 he emigrated to East Jersey, where he became Surveyor-General. After being extensively engaged in writing and travelling in the cause of the Quakers, he deserted that sect, joined the Episcopalians in England, and was consecrated as a Missionary, in which capacity he preached both in Boston and New York. Returning to England, he became Rector at Edburton, in Sussex, where he died. His publications were numerous, but almost exclusively of a controversial character." In this volume, which contains much on America, is "The Citizen," which seems to have been a weekly paper, published from Feb. 9 to July 27, 1739. At page 168 is a discourse on the present state of the colonies in America with respect to the interest of Great Britain, and another on the medium of commerce, wherein the necessity of a paper currency to carry on business between Great Britain and some of her plantations in America is particularly explained.

KEITH. The History of the British Plantations in America. With A Chronological Account of the most remarkable Things which happen'd to the first Adventurers in their several Discoveries of that New World. | Part I. | Containing the History of Virginia; with Remarks on the | Trade and Commerce of that Colony. | By Sir William Keith, Bart. | London: | Printed at the Expence of the Society for the Encouragement of Learning, by S. Richardson; ... M.DCC.XXXVIII. 4to, pp. (8), 187. 2 Maps. BA.

One of the maps is America, with a curious plate of the cod-fishery, and the other, representing Virginia, is inscribed to Thomas, Lord Fairfax. "The first of an intended series of colonial histories, which was not continued." The author was Governor of Pennsylvania from 1717 to 1726, and had previously been Surveyor of the Customs. He died in 1749, aged eighty years. Jefferson, in his "Notes on Virginia," says it is "agreeable enough," but passes over points of importance. See Bancroft's "History of the United States," III. 58.

There are copies on large paper. "In this short catalogue will be found about twenty original tracts relating to Newfoundland; above fifty concerning Virginia; a hundred or more of New-England; and so on in proportion to the colonies."—Preface. "This, as far as it goes, is the best Catalogue of Books relating to America extant, the titles being copied at full length with the greatest exactness, together with name of the printer, and the number of pages in each volume. It unfortunately contains only the books given to the society by White Kennett, Bishop of Peterborough. It is rich in English tracts relating to New England."—RICH. The collection to which it refers has disappeared—some scattered and neglected remains were found a few years since among the archives of the society at Lambeth. Pinelo excepted, this is the first printed catalogue of books relating to America. The copious Index was made by the Rev. Robert Watts. Dr. Dibdin says this catalogue was reprinted in 1791, which is a mistake, see [Homer (Arthur)], Vol. VIII., No. 32720.

KERCHEVAL (S.) A History of the Valley of Virginia. By Samuel Kercheval. Winchester: Samuel H. Davis. 1833. 12mo, pp. (2), 486. B. + Second Edition: Revised and Extended by the Author. Woodstock, Va.: John Gatewood, Printer. 1850. 8vo, pp. 447. 37611

The title to the second edition is scarcely honest. The relation of Mannheim's captivity, and the chapter on slavery is omitted. Brantz Mayer mildly remarks "Some liberties have been taken with Mr. Doddridge's 'Notes on the Indian Wars,' in this reprint of it by way of transposition," which is a delicate way of saying that this is a piratical reprint of Doddridge. T. W. Field refers to a second volume, which does not exist.

For Vol. xviii. see Stevenson (W.) The distinguishing feature of this collection is that it is devoted to voyages and travels of discovery, wherein the boundaries of geographical knowledge were enlarged. It consequently contains all the early expeditions to America and the Pacific in extenso. The eighteenth volume is a history of the progress of maritime and inland discovery, with a bibliographical catalogue of voyages and travels, by William Stevenson; which is a work of great value, and being published at a later time is frequently wanted.

The following is probably a reprint:

KIDD. A Full Account of the Actions of the Late Famous Pyrate, Capt. Kidd. With the Proceedings against Him, and a Vindication of the Right Honourable Richard Earl of Bellomont, Lord Coloony, late Governor of New-England, and other Honourable Persons, from the Unjust Reflections cast upon them. By a Person of Quality. Dublin: Re-printed for Mathew Gunn. 1701. 4to, pp. 42. 37704

Reprinted in W. W. Campbell's "Robin Hood and Captain Kidd," New York, 1853, where Mr. Campbell shows good cause to suppose Kidd's prosecution was but a step in that of Lord Somers, and that he was far from being the wretch popular opinion supposes him to have been. Mr. Campbell intimates a notion that this work was by Lord Somers or Lord Halifax; but this is very improbable.

Also: Account of some of the Traditions and Experiments respecting Captain Kidd's Piratical Vessel. New York, 1844. 8vo.

Captain Kidd was employed by the Earl of Bellmont—who was suspected, in popular opinion, to be implicated with Captain Kidd—to act against the pirates who infested the North American coast in 1696, but turned pirate himself. He was afterwards taken at Boston, sent to England, tried, and hung with several others. "No unimportant man has caused more fear, speculation, and gold-digging, than Captain Kidd."—C. W.

ELLIOTT's New-England History. There are many traditional stories of Kidd extant in New England, and a ballad, containing his last words and dying speech, commencing

"My name was Captain Kidd,
As I sail'd," etc.

was to be had of the peddlers in New England not many years ago. See our Vol. iv., No. 16654, Cooper's "Naval History," p. 58, and Watson's "Annals," II. 212.

Dupaix: with their respective scales of measurement and accompanying descriptions. The whole illustrated by many valuable Inedited Manuscripts, By Lord Kingsborough. The Drawings, on Stone, by A. Aglio. In Seven Volumes. London: Robert Havell. M.DCCC.XXXI. Folio.

Collation: Vol. I. 5 l., 261 Plates, 6 l.; II. 3 l., 304 Plates, 5 l.; III. 3 l., 290 Plates, 4 l.; IV. 3 l., 146 Plates, 8 l.; V. Title, 1 l., Aglio's Dedication, pp. v-vii, (1), 493; VI. Title, 1 l., pp. 540; VII. Title, 1 l., vi, (2 l.), pp. 464. Vol. VIII. London: Henry G. Bohn. MDCCCXLVIII. Title, 1 l., pp. 268, Supplement, 424; IX. Title, 1 l., pp. 468 [Vol. x.] 60.

Vol. IX. closes abruptly on page 468, with an unfinished relation by Don Alva Ixtlilxochitl; followed by pp. 1-60 of another work, on the rites and customs of the Indians of New Spain, at the end of which is printed "End of Vol. IX. Which concludes the work," but a closer examination will show that these pages have the signatures of Vol. X., of which no more was printed. Mr. Bohn reprinted the last leaf with the statement we have quoted, in order, we presume, to make the buyer satisfied; the work is, in fact, a valuable but unfinished production. Vols. VIII. and IX. were not published till seventeen years after the others. Ten copies were printed on large paper, 26 by 19 inches, entirely for presents, and two copies were printed on vellum, one of which was presented to the Bodleian Library, the other to the British Museum. An intending purchaser should secure a set with the plates colored, as the coloring is, in fact, an important feature in explanation of the text; the plates in Vol. IV., however, are never found colored. The story of this magnificent work is at once interesting and pathetic. Mr. Rich remarks that the noble author's "pendant for Mexican Antiquities was produced by a sight of the original Mexican manuscript described by Purchas ('Pilgrimes,' III.), preserved in the Bodleian Library, where his lordship was a student. From the time he first saw it, he appears to have devoted his mind to it, and to have thought of nothing else. Augustin Aglio, an excellent and well-known Italian painter, was employed by him to visit Rome, Vienna, Dresden, and other places, to search for, and to make copies of Mexican manuscripts, and after his return, to make drawings of them on stone. I visited Spain for him in 1830, and again in 1832. ... After having expended upwards of thirty thousand pounds upon this work, he got into difficulties with some of the persons with whom he dealt, particularly with a celebrated paper manufacturer. He was arrested in Dublin, and from obstinacy or unwillingness to pay a demand which he thought unjust, was thrown into prison. He was there seized with a typhus fever, which ended fatally in a few days." Had he lived a few months longer, he would have inherited the title of Earl of Kingston, with an estate of forty thousand pounds a year; and Mexican topics would doubtless have absorbed a large portion of his time and money. This sad story, although often related, is worthy of repetition wherever learning is honored, or devotion to literature esteemed. He seems to have become early imbued with that zeal bordering on infatuation which had allured so many scholars before him; the desire to prove that the American Indians were descendants of the Jews, and in this respect he has raised a monument which will at least preserve these unsolved symbols from destruction. We cannot do less than quote the remarks in the "Athenæum" that "This work in its magnificence recalls to mind the patronage of crowned heads, and the splendor of the princely patrons of literature. It has no taint about it of author or bookseller—it comes in the astounding form of nine volumes, imperial folio! and the cost of producing the whole will exceed fifty or perhaps sixty thousand pounds." The "Times" of Dec. 8, 1868 contains an eloquent tribute to the work, which is reproduced in Mr. Quaritch's Catalogue. See also Brunet's "Manuel," "N. A. Rev.," LI. 396, and Rich's "Bibl. Amer.," II.

"The author appears to have been a person of some note, well acquainted with the secrets of the British Cabinet. He enters into an examination of the several articles of the treaty, and vindicates them from the mistakes and misrepresentations of those who had not well weighed them, or were interested in decrying them. He observes, that 'we had not a moment to lose, and if we had lost the opportunity of reconciliation with America, it would in all probability never have returned till England was totally undone.'"—Monthly Review, LXVIII. 367. Concerning the authorship, see a note in Rich's "Bibl. Amer.," I. 314.

Kort Berättelse om Wäst Indien eller America, som elliest kallas Nya Werlden. [Wysingsborg.] 1675. 4to, pp. (2), 42.

One of the scarcest of the Swedish typographical productions of the seventeenth century on America. The larger part of it is devoted to South America (pp. 12-42); of North America particular notice has been taken only of Virginia; its description fills (pp. 7-11). Although the book bears no printer's name, it is, no doubt, printed by John Kankel of Wysingsborg, as it forms part of the second edition of Hemmersam's voyage and other works on Asia.

A different impression of the preceding book, without the map and a large engraving, representing the conclusion of the peace of Breda, which will be found in the other edition. This rare work may be considered as the most complete and authentic contemporary account of the war between Holland and England, the consequence of which was the final loss of New-Netherland, by the peace of Breda, 1667.

The second title-page reads: "Monumenta sæcularia. Herausgegeben von der Königlich Bayerischen Akademie der Wissenschaften zur Feier ihres hundertjährigen Bestehens am 28 Mars 1859: III Classe." The text gives the history of the discovery according to the most authentic early documents, and the log-book of the third expedition of Francis Drake (1595-96), published in English for the first time. The Atlas is entitled:

KUNSTMANN. Atlas zur Entdeckungs-Geschichte Amerikas ... Herausgegeben von Friedrich Kunstmann. München. [1859.] Folio, pp. (4). 13 Maps. 38348

The maps published here for the first time elucidate many points hitherto obscure in the history of the discovery of America. As specimens of art, and perfect facsimiles, the maps are also extremely interesting; they were drawn from sources inaccessible to ordinary research. The maps numbered 6 and 12 are from a manuscript executed about 1540, and contain very full details of the Californian coast. The fourteenth map was made by an Englishman named Thomas Hood in 1592, and exhibits the coasts of Florida, Virginia, and Upper North America. The others are chiefly charts of the American coasts done by Portuguese and Spaniards at the beginning of the sixteenth century.

The collation varies in some copies of the Amsterdam edition. Admiral Burney expresses a doubt whether this voyage was really made by Le Gentil. "The account is full of obscurity, which may have proceeded from the ignorance of the writer on maritime subjects, and from his general want of judgment. M. de Brosse has allowed credit to the narration as being genuine, observing at the same time that it was one of small importance to the history of navigation or commerce. It is given in the form of letters addressed to some unnamed correspondent between 1714 and 1718."—BURNEY, iv. 508. There are also editions dated 1727 and 1731.

"The author, founder of a colony in Guiana in 1664, wrote this work in order to excite a more general interest, especially to gain the protection of the King himself, for his colony, giving at the same time an account of his enterprises and results, and explaining the favorable prospects of the new colony. But his hopes were not fulfilled, the colony was taken by the English in the following war, and nearly all its new inhabitants were murdered or imprisoned."—MULLER.
